

The Rocky Mountain District Of Kiwanis

Division 12 Newsletter

May 2010

Kiwanis Club of Mt. Shavano dissolves

The Kiwanis Club of Mt. Shavano dissolved effective March 1, 2010 to merge with other service clubs in Salida and form a Community Service Club. The Lions Club and Sertoma Club in Salida were both closing in and this effort was to save service clubs for the community.

Joan Vialpando, longtime secretary of the Kiwanis Club of Pueblo, has resigned as secretary and has been replaced by George Mayfield. Joan was recognized for her community service at a Pueblo Women's History Week Outstanding Women Awards luncheon at the Pueblo Rawlings Library on March 5th.

Kiwanis is a global organization of volunteers dedicated to changing the world on one child and one community at a time.

The Kiwanis Club of Pueblo Foundation donated $500 to Junior Achievement for their Junior Achievement Day program, which is expected to reach over 500 youth.

Over 60 Kiwanians gathered in Pueblo West to package meals for Kids Against Hunger for Kiwanis One Day. There were representatives from all clubs in Division 12 plus Key Clubs from the division. Governor Kelly was present to assist and gave an inspirational address to the workers regarding the importance of Kiwanis. It was a good day with 10,000 meals packaged.

The Kiwanis Club of Pueblo Foundation donated $500 to Junior Achievement for their Junior Achievement Day program, which is expected to reach over 500 youth.

The Kiwanis Club of Pueblo Foundation also honored Dr. Jeffrey Geller for his work with the club's Orthodontia program.

The Kiwanis Club of La Junta will be celebrated their 50th anniversary on March 20th. They had representatives from other clubs attend and had over 50 people in attendance.

Stars of Tomorrow was hosted by the Steel City Club on March 13th.

A reminder to clubs that have not yet had nominations for next year's officers. This needs to be done.

May is Membership Month for Kiwanis.

Please plan to register and attend the Rocky Mountain District Convention in Laramie, Wyoming August 12-15. Let's have a good turnout from Division 12.